"THE LEATHER PUSHERS"

Round Two

DUMMY KARNEY, Kane's former manager, tries to get him back; he is sore because he thinks Murphy and Halliday have framed him.

Murphy loses all his and Kane's money in a crap game and it is necessary for his protegee to train in the park, as gymnasiums cost money. While jogging along Kane sees his fiancée in an auto. She stops and talks with him, but does not learn he is a prize-fighter until Karney drives up and starts a scene and bawls Kane out for being crooked. Kane loses his temper and knocks Karney "cold" before his girl, who leaves in disgust.

Kane is matched to meet "Special Delivery" Kelly, who has never been licked. Murphy bets his end of the prize money that Kane will knock out Kelly in two rounds. The fight goes three rounds before Kane, ignorant of his manager's bet, finishes Kelly.

Although victor, Kane is again broke, as his end of the purse has been lost. Just as things look gloomiest, Halliday gets another jolt—his fiancée returns the engagement ring. Kane starts to call her names when Murphy interrupts and tells him that she is a sweet woman, takes the ring and makes a bee-line for the nearest pawn-shop.
